Terms and Conditions

Attending Ecstatic Breath

Please note that the subject matter of Ecstatic Breath is likely to stir up any unresolved issues around your relationships, sexuality and creative gifts. We provide you with a safe space to meet these parts of yourself and to work through these places. Further assistance may be required within individual session, especially in cases of trauma.

By attending Ecstatic Breath you understand that this tantric pulse of life approach involves bringing direct awareness to your psychological-sexual-spiritual nature.

If any issues arise for you as a participant, do seek extra support and assistance as required, because it is empowering for you to take action and do so.

Shantell Shakti, the Founder of Ecstatic Breath is available for ongoing support in private sessions when requested. Remember, we are here to support your healing and integration and it is important that you ask for support when you need it. We will also refer you to other therapists if required.

Injuries

If you have a physical injury and are unsure whether Ecstatic Breath practices are suitable for you, clearance from your medical practitioner may be required. We do ask that you take responsibility for yourself to ensure that you always move and position yourself in integrity with the state of your body.

If you have an injury and decide to attend our events, you agree to monitor your own movements and take care of your body. Always be gentle. We do not encourage an approach of pushing yourself or forcing your body in any way. By following the instructions carefully, it is highly unlikely that you could hurt yourself during participation in Ecstatic Breath. If you are unsure about whether you are in the right physical condition to book into our events, please ask.

Missed Sessions

We encourage and highly recommend your commitment to attending every session of your enrolled Ecstatic Breath journey. If you need to miss any session, it may not be made up at another time.

If you do not wish to commit to the full series of Ecstatic Breath, and prefer to attend individual sessions, you acknowledge there is no guarantee of admittance. Priority goes to those that are attending the full series of Ecstatic Breath.

Confidentiality Agreement for Ecstatic Breath

It is a condition of your participation in Ecstatic Breath that you agree to keep confidential all methods, techniques, ideas, knowledge, information, manners of delivery, instructions, principles and practices of Ecstatic Breath, including the experiences of other participants and assistants.

You agree to uphold the trust between yourself and Shantell Shakti of Ecstatic Breath by not divulging, publishing, recording, giving away or otherwise sharing the principles, practices and techniques that you learn as a result of your participation in any Ecstatic Breath.

If you are an established Breathwork or Tantra practitioner and like to facilitate the Ecstatic Breath techniques with your clients, you may do so by giving credit to Shantell Shakti and Ecstatic Breath.
